

Chairman Collects Honour from the Queen

John LS Malcolm QPM

Investiture held at the Palace of Holyroodhouse 30 June 2009

On June 30th John LS Malcolm was presented with the Queen's Police Medal for Distinguished Service.

The SecuriGroup Chairman stated "To be recognised with this award after 36 years of doing something that I loved and which gave me fantastic experiences in many different ranks and roles made me very proud. The Investiture was a terrific experience in magnificent surroundings and meeting Her Majesty really made the day special for me and my family, an honour indeed"

SecuriGroup nominated in Security Excellence Awards 2009

SecuriGroup has been nominated for 2 categories in the Security Excellence Awards. The first category is 'ACS Champion of the Year', which will be awarded to the company that has best helped to raise their operational standards and promoted good practice through their involvement and compliance with the SIA.

The second category is 'Best Practice in Door Supervision' which is awarded for providing excellent service to customers, staff and the leisure security sector in general.

Managing Director, Russel Kerr stated 'On behalf of the organisation, we are very proud to be nominated for such prestigious awards.'

UK Contract for Gala Coral Group awarded to SecuriGroup

Gala Coral have awarded the security of their entire estate to SecuriGroup. This brings a total of 52 casinos and bingo halls to supply in all corners of the UK.

Chief Executive Alan Morton stated "We have a long established relationship with Gala Coral, and the award of the entire UK estate to SecuriGroup is testament to the high levels of service provided by our security staff."

SecuriGroup Chief Executive Alan Morton

Project Argus Training Deemed a Success

Recently SGL and Strathclyde Police teamed up to provide counter terrorism training to more than 40 different companies and organisations. 'Project Argus' increases awareness of counter terrorism issues and help make the community more resilient. John LS Malcolm, Chairman of SecuriGroup who helped arrange the event said, "Given the nature of our business and the clients we have in Glasgow and other major cities in the UK this is an important topic. The evening economy attracts patrons by the hundreds of thousands across the country week by week and their security and safety is something licence holders and service suppliers have to take seriously. This event has given us the chance to bolster our professional approach in tandem with those clients we supply. I am grateful to Strathclyde Police for their involvement in a very successful event". SGL will continue to undertake such initiatives.

Russel Kerr, MD appointed Chairman of Skills for Security Group

SecuriGroup's Managing Director, Russel Kerr, was recently elected Chairman of the Skills for Security Employer Consultation Group. The remit of this influential group is to identify current and future skills and needs, find the most appropriate methods of addressing skills shortages, and develop career paths and qualifications frameworks that will help the security business sector to attract, retain and develop its staff.

"Skills for Security was launched in 2006 as a Sector Skills Body with the remit of improving skills, raising professionalism and helping to improve business performance across the entire sector."

SecuriGroup
Managing Director
Russel Kerr

SecuriGroup in the Premier League

SecuriGroup have started off the football season with another win, gaining the contract at Motherwell FC.

Operations Director, David Wilson commented "Through our company ethos of 'Safety, Courtesy, Efficiency' we are able to supply the highest standard of service. As a leading Scottish trainer in the SVQ Level 2 Spectator Safety Training course it gives a competitive, cost effective safety solution for all football clubs. We are looking forward to continual growth in this area."

SecuriGroup
Operations Director
David Wilson

SGL win 3D contract

3D Entertainment Group

SGL have recently won the contract for 25 venues across England and Wales. These include brands such as Chicago Rock Cafe, Mortimers and Love 2 Love.

Andrew McAllister, Business Development Director added "This is a positive opportunity for both companies to work in partnership to ensure the safety and security of customers and staff across all of the 3D Entertainment venues."

SecuriGroup
Business Development
Director
Andrew McAllister

SecuriGroup's most successful Events Season

The summer festival season has been a huge success this year for the SecuriGroup Events department having provided thousands of staff to some of the largest festivals in the UK. Staff worked incredibly hard through wind, rain and beating sunshine to help ensure the festivals were a safe and fun environment.

Chris Callaghan, SecuriGroup's Operations Manager for Events said that, "The standard of service provided from our team this year has been of the highest quality. Our events department keeps going from strength to strength."

New appointment to the top team

Beverly McKenzie has joined SecuriGroup as Projects Director. Beverly's extensive senior management experience with some of the UK's leading leisure companies enables her to influence all aspects of our organisation from operations and client satisfaction to business development and human resource management.

Beverly stated "I am extremely excited to be joining a company with SecuriGroup's vision and potential. The drive and ambition of the board, coupled with an impressive management team will ensure that our goals and objectives are met and exceeded."

SecuriGroup
Projects Director
Beverly McKenzie