

SecuriGroup sponsor SBCC Reception at the Scottish Parliament

Left to right

Bill Matthews, SIA Board
 David Greer, Chief Executive, Skills for Security
 Bill Butler, Chief Executive, SIA
 Russel Kerr, Managing Director, SecuriGroup
 Bill Aitken MSP, Shadow Cabinet Secretary
 John LS Malcolm QPM, Chairman, SecuriGroup
 Alan Dobie, Executive Director, SBCC
 Ken Russell, Chairman, SBCC

On March 2nd the Scottish Business Crime Centre held their annual parliamentary reception. The event was hosted by Bill Aitken MSP. The speakers on the night were John LS Malcolm QPM, SecuriGroup, Fergus Ewing MSP, Minister for Community Safety and Ken Russell, Chairman of the SBCC. The delegates ranged from Chief Constables to Chief Executives including Bill Butler, CEO of the Security Industry Authority (pictured).

Chairman, John LS Malcolm QPM said, "As members of the Scottish Business Crime Centre the opportunity to sponsor the Parliamentary Reception gave SecuriGroup an ideal platform to successfully reinforce our presence in the Scottish Business Community to an influential audience."

Credential Added

Tay House, Glasgow

SecuriGroup have secured two prestigious contracts in Glasgow city centre. Credential Holdings are one of Scotland's most prominent commercial property companies and have been added to SecuriGroup's increasing portfolio of prestigious clients. Magic Sandlan, Security Guarding Director stated that "Winning these contracts in Glasgow is an excellent development for our division."

Visit our website

www.SecuriGroup.co.uk

INVESTORS
 IN PEOPLE

Blueprint win Security Training Award

Blueprint's Operations Manager Kitty McAuley and SecuriGroup's Managing Director Russel Kerr

SecuriGroup's in-house training division, Blueprint Training Solutions has picked up the top prize in the 'Security Training' category at the recent BII National Industry Training Awards, which took place at Coventry's Ricoh Arena.

BII Director of Marketing Sue Medhurst commented: "Blueprint Training's excellent programme would stand benchmarking outside of the industry and demonstrates good practice for the licensed retail sector as a whole."

Level 2 Spectator Safety at Celtic Park

Mary Watson of Blueprint Training and John Walsh, Deputy Chief Steward at Celtic Football Club

SecuriGroup's Blueprint Training continues to lead the way by delivering the first SVQ Level 2 in Spectator Safety qualification in Scotland. The first award was attained by John Walsh, Deputy Chief Steward at Celtic Football Club. The legislation being introduced for the start of season 2010/2011 requires every safety steward to complete the new SQA vocational training requirement.

Positive Survey Results

SurveyMonkey.com

SecuriGroup are constantly working to improve standards and the participation of our clients in this survey has been invaluable.

The results indicate our highest score yet in overall service, and our team will use the feedback provided to further tailor our service to each individual client.

MD appointed Vice Chairman of BII Scotland Council

SecuriGroup managing director Russel Kerr has been elected Vice Chairman of the Scottish Council of the British Institute of Innkeeping. The BII is the professional standards body for the licensed retail sector and is the industry's leading membership organisation representing the views of thousands of members throughout the UK.

SecuriGroup Secures Reith Lambert

SecuriGroup has secured a contract with Reith Lambert. Business Development Director Andrew McAllister stated "Reith Lambert is a well established, progressive property management company and the engagement of our security guarding service is another great addition to our company's extensive portfolio of corporate clients."

World's No 1 DJ spins into Scotland

One of Europe's largest dance events was held recently in Edinburgh. SecuriGroup's Event division provided the security and crowd management for DJ Tiesto, as he performed on one of the legs for his sold out European Tour – Kaleidoscope.

A CP Events spokesperson who promoted the event commented, "SecuriGroup's professionalism and high standards ensured the event was a great success and everyone had a fantastic and safe night."

Visit our website

www.SecuriGroup.co.uk

SecuriGroup Join Northern Ireland Chamber of Commerce

The Northern Ireland Chamber of Commerce Business Development Director, Oonagh O'Reilly, stated:

"The Chamber is the largest and most influential business network in Northern Ireland. We are delighted to welcome SecuriGroup as members of the chamber."

Operations Director David Wilson said, "Joining the Chamber of Commerce is a vital part of our development in Northern Ireland."

SGL and Luminar

Luminar, the UK's largest nightclub company have awarded the contract for the North East of England and the whole of Scotland to SGL. With brands such as Liquid, Lava & Ignite and the Jam House, Luminar lead the way for late night entertainment. Alan Morton, Chief Executive said, "We have a long standing relationship with Luminar and our expansion of coverage is testament to the high levels of service provided by our door supervisors and management."

Head Office Relocation

Venlaw, 349 Bath St, Glasgow

Our head office is relocating to the Venlaw Building on Bath Street, Glasgow. The move supports our ongoing commitment to maximising the efficiency of our administration and delivering our clients and staff with the highest standard of service. The central location has great public transport links that will allow easy access to the head office and its training facility.