

Chairman appointed head of Crimestoppers

John LS Malcolm QPM

Speaking of his appointment, Mr. Malcolm said, "I am honoured and excited to be involved with Crimestoppers, the only charity involved in combating crime. A true example of community working. This role in conjunction with my role at SecuriGroup can only add benefit to both organisations and that of public safety."

Compliance Manager continues to raise the bar

Kim Van Deere

Kim Van Deere MCQI CQP was recently awarded Chartered Quality Manager status after demonstrating her portfolio of skills within the discipline of quality management.

Kim heads SecuriGroup's compliance department and controls our auditing process for the company's SIA ACS status, Investors In People, BSIA, Safe Contractor and ISO accreditation.

INVESTORS IN PEOPLE

Visit our website

www.SecuriGroup.co.uk

SAFETY • COURTESY • EFFICIENCY

SIA Annual Conference 2010

Russel Kerr

SecuriGroup's managing director, Russel Kerr, was invited to speak at the SIA's annual conference in London. His presentation followed the speech of SIA chairman Baroness Ruth Henig.

Addressing an audience of 200-plus security professionals, senior police officers, leading academics and many of the sector's key organisations, Russel provided a practitioner's view of working within the private security industry before unveiling the blueprint for a multi-agency approach to tackle serious and organised crime.

SecuriGroup and the License Trade Federation in Northern Ireland

Pubs of Ulster

Chief Executive Colin Neil said "We are pleased to welcome SecuriGroup as one of our associate suppliers.

The Federation represents 70% of all licensed trade in Northern Ireland and is continually developing new ways of providing support to the local licensed trade and developing strategic partnerships with key organisations."

Govan Cross added to portfolio

SecuriGroup continue to develop their relationship with prominent property management company Reith Lambert. The Security Guarding division are proud to supply one of the UK's longest standing shopping centres.

INVESTORS IN PEOPLE

SIA Parliamentary Reception

left to Right: Russel Kerr, Baroness Ruth Henig, Kenny MacAskill and John LS Malcolm QPM

The Justice Secretary, Kenny MacAskill, hosted the SIA's Annual Reception from the Scottish Parliament. SIA Chairman, Baroness Ruth Henig provided the keynote address and applauded SecuriGroup's success in achieving the Security Industry Authority's ACS Champion of the Year Award.

Other delegates included Assistant Chief Constable of Strathclyde Police George Hamilton as well as senior representatives from HM Revenue and Customs, The UK Borders Agency, Members of the Scottish Parliament, Scottish Government and Lothian & Borders Police.

Positive Response in Staff Surveys

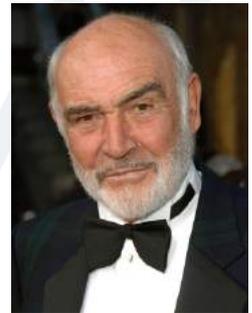

SurveyMonkey.com

SecuriGroup understands the importance of how our team sees the business and values all feedback. The participation in this round of surveys has provided a great response, allowing everyone at SecuriGroup to influence the continuing development of our organisation.

Visit our website

www.SecuriGroup.co.uk

Sean Connery

June brought many stars to the red carpet for Edinburgh's International Film Festival. Patrons Sir Sean Connery, Tilda Swinton and Seamus McGarvey all showed their support.

The festival was the highest attended on record and is looking forward to an even bigger event next year. Security at Cineworld in Fountain Park and Teviot Row was provided by SecuriGroup's Edinburgh Division and Operations Manager, Craig Laverty stated "It is great to be involved in such a prestigious event."

The summer of events

The Events Division enters its busiest time of the year, supplying staff from Northamptonshire to the Hebrides from small exclusive events such as the Glam and Miss Scotland Week to over 450 staff at T in the Park.

SecuriGroup joins the Facebook World

For all our latest stories, pictures and updates add SecuriGroup on Facebook. Business Development Director Andy McAllister stated "Facebook is a great medium for communicating with staff and clients."